MRS. STEVEN JUDD
the former Miss Priscilla Anne Wooldridge

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Priscilla Ann Wooldridge to Mr. Steven Judd took place July 27, 1975 at 3 p.m. in Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl (Skinny) Wooldridge of Appomattox and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Judd of Luray.

The Reverend H. Doyle Chauncey, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, chose a formal length gown of white dotted swiss with empire bodice featuring a high neckline and long cuffed sleeves, enhanced with Venetian and Cluny lace. The soft flowing skirt ended in a deep ruffle. The chapel length veil of illusion fell from a lace covered bonnet. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white and blue daisies.

Miss Pat Lipps of Luray was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Carol Wood of Appomattox. Miss Ginger Welch of Pamplin , and Misses Pam and Connie Bradford of Luray. They wore slipper length gowns of blue dotted swiss and carried bouquets of spider mums with ribbon to match the dresses.

Flower girl was Anita Wells, cousin of the bride, and ring bearer was Jeffrey Agee, both of Appomattox.

Walter Judd of Luray was his brother's best man. Ushers were Ricky Judd, Benjamin Beahm, Ricky Thomas and Albert Clark, all of Luray.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose a formal length dress of white background with blue flowers. The groom's mother wore a formal length dress of blue. Both wore orchid corsages.

Music was by Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan, organist, and Mrs. Phil Harrison, soloist.

After the wedding the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. Benjamin Cole of Appomattox and Mrs. Benjamin Beahm of Luray registered the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Longwood College. The groom is a graduate of Luray High School.

After a wedding trip through the Southern states the couple will make their home in Luray, Va., where they are both employed.

MRS. MARK EVERETT SKINNER
the former Miss Nancy Jean Smith

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Nancy Jean Smith to Mr. Mark Everett Skinner took place Saturday, August 2, 1975 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Hebron Baptist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith of 7126 Richland Drive, Lynchburg and is the granddaughter of Mrs. Clyde D. Carson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Skinner RD6, Box 588, Binghamton, New York.

The Rev. Dennis Moore, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight d'Alencon lace and tulle over taffeta. The princess bodice was pointed at the waist and had a low portrait neck finished with deep scallops of lace. Her floor length skirt was full and had frills of tulle and scalloped lace down the back and under the wide panel of lace in the front. Her largebrimmed hat was accented with daisy appliques and trailed a floor length veil of illusion. She carried colored daisies and baby's breath on a white Prayer Book. Her gown and pearl necklace are family heirlooms.

Miss Linda Smith of Lynchburg, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Susan White of Blacksburg and Ann Malatin of Richmond. The maid of honor wore a flowing halter gown with matching large hat of grass green. The bridesmaids wore gowns of the same style and hat in yellow and pink/lavender.

Miss Kelli Charles of Madison Heights was flower girl. She wore a yellow dotted swiss gown and dropped colored daisies down the aisle.

Mr. Kevin Willims of Binghamton, New York was best man. Groomsmen were Brent Skinner of Binghamton, New York, cousin of the bridegroom, and Randy White of Blacksburg.

Ring bearer was Chris Skinner of Binghamton, New York, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith, parents of the bride, were hosts for a reception on the church lawn following the ceremony.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Brookville High School and will be a candidate for graduation from Radford College in November with a B.S. degree in Home Economics. She is a member of Omicron Nu and Kappa Delta Pi honor sororities.

The groom is a 1971 graduate of Chenango Valley High School in Binghamton, New York. He will receive a B.S. degree in Veterinary Science from Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University in December.
